

Dr Karunesh Kaslap (“Kesh”) - This is my Life

One of the Club’s newer members, Kesh, was guest speaker at the Club’s last meeting. Kesh is obviously very close with his extended family and spent almost as much time talking about them as he did about himself! Born in India, he first visited Hobart with his father in 1997. In 2007, at the age of 22, he graduated from Dental College in Western Australia and eventually ended up back in Hobart, now with dental practices in New Norfolk & Lindisfarne.

Kesh listed his loves as: Laddoo his dog, cooking, horseriding, long distance swimming, bush walking & red wine!

He lives by the motto that he “will not talk dentistry after 5pm” and is a great believer in having very strong bonds with his staff.

Thank you Kesh for a wonderful insight into your life.

LINDISFARNE ROTARIANS IN ACTION
It has been a big few weeks for the Club!

Firstly, we raised funds at Bunnings

...then we provided free rides over 4 days at the Royal Hobart Show

....along the way, a number of Club members found time to attend the Group 2 Forum

Where amongst other things, the DG promoted the next District Conference, that will enable members to experience the newly refurbished and totally revamped, Theatre Royal. There will be some top guest speakers including Kurt Fearnley. DG Michael also promoted his Queenstown weekend and his desire for clubs to acknowledge the service to our country provided by current and ex service personnel.

.....We then organized the long awaited, official opening, of the Club sponsored, Beltana Park Gazebo, with a well attended community drinks & nibbles event!

....and finally some members attended the opening of the Club sponsored, Lime Kiln Point Sculpture Trail!!

.....WOW – well done everyone!!!

A Note of thanks from the District Secretary

To all members of the Rotary Club of Lindisfarne

I would like to express my appreciation for the invitation to attend your street party in the Beltana Park. It was a very well conceived and well run event. Thank you for the delicious refreshments and the chance to see the new amenity and to witness the celebration.

I loved your concept of a quiet place in a busy street, a place for workers to sit and have lunch and it was so clever of you to incorporate the membership opportunity. Thank you too for another opportunity to connect with the club which brought me into the Rotary family.

Roslyn Teirney, District Secretary
