This Meeting Rose Bray – Ten Lives – How can Cats & Wildlife Coexist?

Last Meeting RCOL & Clarence Sunrise Changeover Dinner

President Stephen summarized the year just finished and gave an outlook of some of the things planned in the year ahead.

He spoke about the Club's involvement in each of the above areas, and whilst you might think that the year had been heavily impacted by COVID, it was still amazing to hear just how much had been achieved by Members in all these areas!

An outstanding performance – well done everybody!

Jackson, the incoming President for the Clarence Sunrise Club, then spoke about their last twelve months and some of what they plan for the next year. They might only be a small Club, but are certainly very active. The Bulletin is now going to include a "Clarence Sunrise News" section, so that Lindisfarne members are better informed about the happenings in our Satellite Club. (thanks Hannah for doing this!)

Update from our President

Thank you very much for a strong showing from the members and partners who attended the Changeover, as well as attendance from Sunrise Club members. Let us not forget the presence of the “G train” and thanks to PDG Heather Chong and DG Bob Calvert and wife Kaye for attending. Also, thanks to Clarence Sunrise Chair, Jackson for speaking about the Club’s last twelve months happenings and what is on the cards for the next twelve.

I mentioned on the night that our Club are over-achievers in regards to our District presence. I mentioned, Mike as DGE, Peter Fitz as AG, Peter M as Director SP, Richard as District IS&M. I must apologize because I did forget to mention an important part of the District team, being District Webmaster, Dante. There may be a prize for the first person (District reps are excluded) who can correctly name the various designations of our honourable District Representatives.

A few other things:

- After a review of last year’s finances, we had to put the meeting fee up from $5 to $7.50. This fee covers the cost of prizes, club facility hire, guest meals and will partially offset various administration expenses.
- We are hoping that we can continue with Tuckers Catering as our caterers, where you pay them direct rather than via Kathy.
- The Board has identified that we need to plan a bit better for the future and have something in place for both the short term and the long term. With this type of process, the suggested format is to have a planning session, facilitated by someone that does not have direct involvement in our Club. Luckily, we can make use of the planning resources that are available through District for this process, which we would like to start next month.
- In these days, where privacy is a big factor, it has been necessary that we seek permission whenever we take and publish photos of members and guests in the Bulletin or on Facebook. In the past, a verbal yes would do, but now it is necessary to have a signed approval form. Members who are willing to have their photo taken will be asked to sign this form, as will any guest speakers. We are working on a process for situations where photos are taken such as when Tommy is on an outing.

OPERATIONS UPDATE

In a week where we had a changeover dinner...that wasn't, we also had a barbeque... that wasn't!

A major Club sponsor, Ben of Banjos Lindisfarne, requested an urgent PR opportunity photo of himself and members of Rotary with our BBQ setup, to show his Banjos network, one of his donation targets. But he turned up with not a slice of bread!!!

Neville and I set up the tent and the BBQ trailer [thanks to the Sunrise club]. It had to be undercover as the weather was not too good. Ben got his photos, so he was happy.

Ps... this is the only barbeque that I have ever been to, that had NO sausages, NO bread, NO gas and NO sauce. What else can we arrange that doesn't really happen!!

Paddy is going through customs in Dublin airport when he's asked to identify a bottle in his luggage.

"That's holy water I've brought back from Lourdes," says Paddy.

The customs officer opens it and sniffs it and says, "this smells more like whisky."
